Terice Schneider

Temple, TX

Please increase funding for E-Rate. The enormous responsibility of educators today includes showing the students how to use the Internet effectively and properly. If we cannot reach the Internet, then we cannot experience this very crucial learning. Even our online testing is impossible if we don't have enough bandwidth to connect to the tests. Please help us before we become woefully far behind other nations in our global economy. Thank you.